Business Spotlight

The Money

The Money, Rock Hill's oldest live music venue and bar, is now under new management. David Kiser, who is experienced in the music scene, recently became President/CEO of The Money. Kiser is excited to be part of the Old Town community. He wants people, ages 18 and up, to know that they can come to this newly-enhanced venue to enjoy great entertainment and refreshments in a safe, enjoyable environment. He also hopes local students will find the atmosphere at The Money to be college–friendly.

A variety of entertainers are featured at The Money throughout each month, in addition to deejays on the outdoor patio. Karaoke, darts, and cornhole tournaments are often scheduled as well. There is also a 20-tap draft beer system, several craft beers, and a tiki bar. Whenever opportunities arise, The Money hosts charity events to support local organizations and give back to the community.

The Money is located in Old Town at 110 S. Cherry Road, across from Winthrop University. It is open every evening from 7pm to 2am. For more information or details about upcoming shows, call 803-329-2710; email: themoneyrh@gmail.com; or visit the website: www.themoneysc.com
