This interest rate tool, which is updated weekly, shows a comparison of rate and APRs. Information displayed is accurate as of the date of the latest update. Rates and terms offered are subject to change based on fluctuations in interest rate markets. Loan pricing can only be locked through an Allen Tate Mortgage Consultant.

The monthly payment amount displayed includes principal and interest only. The payment amount does not include homeowner's insurance or property taxes, which must be paid in addition to your loan payment.

Rates shown reflect those available to the following consumer segment: 740+ FICO, $200,000 loan amount, LTV \leq 80%, SFD, Primary Home.

All credit decisions will vary based upon your loan request and credit profile. Other restrictions may apply.
