Event Spotlight

With a nod to its long history and current day “Throwback Thursday,” this year’s Come-See-Me Festival opens with the “Remember When” Parade on opening night. Recently named South Carolina Event of the Year, this year’s Festival offers its consistently fun and family-friendly events. Music lovers may enjoy several venues and 16 musical acts, including opening weekend’s Beach Bash to weekday lunch concerts at Glencairn Garden, to Moonlight Jazz & Blues beside Winthrop Lake, and the ever popular giant Tailgate Party with headliner Crashbox. The festival finale is the fabulous Fireworks Extravaganza following the tailgate.

Did You Know?

- Come-See-Me debuted spring of 1962.
- “Glen the Frog”[®] was designed by the late Vernon Grant, nationally acclaimed illustrator and creator of Kellogg’s[®] “Snap, Crackle and Pop[®].”

Business Spotlight:

Provisions Local Market

Provisions Local Market is a farm-friendly, family-owned market located in Old Town, 121 Caldwell St, Rock Hill. Their goal is to help bring our local producers and communities together in one convenient location. They think good customer service is no more than a transaction between friends. The Provisions staff are passionate about sustainable food production and are committed to offering you the best shopping experience.

At the market you will find fresh local produce (seasonal), dairy items like milk and yogurt, free range eggs, pastured and grass fed meats, locally roasted coffees, and daily baked goodies like fresh breads and sweets that are all made/grown in the Carolinas. In addition to their local foods, the Provisions branded whole foods, spices and snacks are of the best quality and value.

The Rock Hill location is the third installment for Provisions by Sandy Creek. The other locations are in Historic Waxhaw and Belmont, NC communities.

The Old Town location is open Sunday- Thursday, 10am to 8pm, and Friday- Saturday, 10am to 9pm.
